"Death by Chocolate"

This travel package planned & escorted by Deann Haden-Luke

Community theatre is alive and well in Iowa. Take this opportunity to see for yourself by joining in a fun autumn outing to the Cedar Falls Community Theatre's production of the comical murder mystery spoof, "Death by Chocolate."

During this delightfully sarcastic and cynical show, members of the newly renovated Meadowbrook Health Resort are dropping like flies - not the best advertisement for the eve of the grand reopening! In a wacky race against time, it's up to the manager and an amateur sleuth mystery writer to find the cause and the murderer. The clues point to a sinister box of chocolates and the suspects include all the outlandish characters working for the resort. In the words of critics, this show is "an entertaining murder mystery wrapped around a zesty filling of food for thought...chock full of delectable one-liners." Your artistic senses will say "YUM!" To set the mood, we'll sample some chocolates on our way to the show.

The Cedar Falls Community Theatre (CFCT) was organized in 1978, with the strong support of the Cedar Falls Recreation Department and a dedicated handful of community members. The troupe's home base is the renovated, historic Oster Regent Theatre, built as a performance hall in 1910 and gifted to them in 1991. The CFCT board, and community as a whole, raised and spent $1.2 million to restore the building. Your participation supports the community theatre's continued legacy of providing live performances in this beautiful setting.

After the show we return to our departure cities.
